Grant Announcement Summary

Grant Title: Private Protective Services Training Grant

Description: Funding under this grant program will help provide continuing education training for licensees in the Private Protective Services field in North Carolina.

Grant Number: PPSB2012-1

The Private Protective Services Board (the Board) is pleased to announce that they are open to receiving grant applications from {8:00 a.m.} on {February 24, 2012} until {5:00 p.m.} on {April 23, 2012}.

Grants to be considered for awards shall be to nonprofit organizations (501(c)(3) certification), community colleges, or other state schools that are seeking to provide training classes which “will advance education in the private protective services field for the benefit of all licensees, registrants, and trainees.” If your industry does not have nonprofit status, the Board will consider applications if a community college or state school will agree to sponsor the training.

If awarded, the grant will not exceed $5,000.00 and shall be for meeting room expenses, speaker costs, training aids, material expenditures, and other similar direct costs. The Board reserves the right to limit travel expenses and will not support expenses that are not directly related to training and professional development. These prohibited expenses include alcohol or bar charges, golf or recreation, gift shop, mini-bar, limousine services, meals that are valued in excess of state employee reimbursement rates per the Office of State Budget and Management Budget Manual (<http://www.osbm.state.nc.us>), expenses related to lobbying or political advocacy and related expenses that give the appearance of extravagance.

The grant must be open to the industry at large and all advertising for the course must include the statement that “This course is being funded in whole or in part by a grant from the Private Protective Services Board”.

All awards issued shall be in compliance with and follow the guidelines of NCGS 74C-30. If you are interested in applying for a grant, please fill out the grant application with a detailed explanation of the training course or courses you would like to hold complete with anticipated dates, a breakdown of expenses, estimated attendance, and a description of the benefit this course will provide for the industry to {ANTHONY BONAPART, 4901 GLENWOOD AVENUE, SUITE 200, RALEIGH, NC 27612}.

Grants will be selected based on the industry needs, the number and variety of people expected to attend the training, and other applicable criteria as determined by the Private Protective Service Board.

Applicants will provide the PPS Training and Education Committee with detailed information about their proposed project that will be used to make a funding decision. Questions on what is expected in each section can be directed to:

{ANTHONY BONAPART, 919-788-5320, EXT. 218, ABONAPART@NCDOJ.GOV }.
